Guest Speaker District Governor Dick Wilson. His attendance was his official visit to our club. Coincidentally it was our clubs 61st birthday.

Dick wished our club a happy birthday. Our club was chartered in 1954. Membership is minimal but it is great that President Euan stepped up to the challenge.

He gave recognition to Bob Brigden, Peter Poulton, Rodger & Glenda Hedley, Roger Lang, Barbara Saunders and Monica Ruston [former exchange student from South America].

Dick mentioned the 2017-2018 Rotary International President is Australian, Ian Risleley.

Dick went on to talk about his affection and love for Rotary. His father was a Rotarian. Dick attended many Rotary functions as a child and it was almost automatic that he became a Rotarian.

He was from Naracoorte, raised in Renmark, educated in Adelaide, and graduated in Medicine in 1966.

He started his general practice at Strathalbyn in 1973 and joined the Strathalbyn Rotary Club in 1974.

His Rotary career had begun!

Among the topics he spoke about included Polio and the contribution Rotary has made. He gave recognition to Euan for his participation in Rotary Foundation.

Rotary needs to talk more about their achievements and seek people who wish to give back to the community.

He then went on to promote the Renmark District Conference and circulated details to our members.

President Euan thanked Dick for his talk and presented him with a Magill Bennetts pottery jar as a token of our appreciation.

Meeting Closure

President Euan then closed the meeting

Quotation:

Friendship is a natural and willing servant.....there is no reason.....why the great power of friendship should not be harnessed to do its part in the world's work.

Paul Harris.
