Excerpts from "The Herald"

Remembrance Day 2015

Last Wednesday it was my privilege to be taken on a personal journey of vivid images, instructive commentary, and above all soul searching stories told through music by "The Embers" at a performance in Murray Bridge. As the audience in the Town Hall was taken across the history of Australians at war from WWI to the present, the focus was clearly on the stories, the emotions, and aspirations of ordinary fathers, mothers, sons, daughters, brothers, sisters, and family.

Yes it was confronting to view and hear all this through eyes filled with tears, but the audience left having felt, as well as heard a moving tribute to the people caught up in wars, and the huge debt of gratitude we owe to those who have given so much to ensure our way of life.

I do not want to emphasise the terrible wastefulness of conflict, but we were reminded of names such as Fromelles HMAS Sydney, Battle of Britain, Kokoda, Centaur, Sandakan, and Long Tan in a brilliant audio-visual production.

Congratulations to President Bronwyn Heard Rotary Club of Mobilong, here with RSL President John Meers, and Craniofacial Australia representative Bob Snewin who were each presented with a cheque of $1000 for their organisations.

Congratulations to Rotarian Dale Manson for his organisation of this event and to Rotarian Sharon Pratt for the photos.
